WOMEN'S COMMISSION TO SPONSOR FINAL TOWN MEETING

The Commission on the Status of Women for the City of Tuscaloosa will sponsor its final town meeting on Tuesday, May 17, at 7 p.m. at the Junior College Division of Shelton State Community College, 202 Skyland Blvd.

Over the past few months, the Commission has met with women in five of the seven city districts. The purpose of these meetings has been to determine the problems and concerns facing the women of Tuscaloosa.

From information gathered at these meetings, the Women's Commission will published a report which will be given to the Tuscaloosa City Council along with specific recommendations of solutions to these problems.

Although this meeting will target women in Districts 6 and 7, all women within the city are urged to attend since this will be the final opportunity to gather information on these issues.

Bill Lanford and Tommy Dockery, councilmen from these two districts, will be at the meeting along with other members of the Tuscaloosa City Council.

Chairing this meeting will be Lucy Kubiszyn, commissioner of District 6, and Rhoda Johnson, commissioner District 7. Bettie Woods-Long currently serves as chair of the Women's Commission for 1988.

The Commission on the Status of Women for the City of Tuscaloosa, or the Women's Commission, is an advisory commission appointed by the Tuscaloosa City Council. The purpose of the organization is to determine the needs of the women of this area, to make recommendations to the City Council, and to work to improve the lives of these women.

FIRE COLLEGE TO DEMONSTRATE FIRE FIGHTING OF PROPANE FIRES

A NEW and exciting training session at the Fire College will be held on Monday, June 6, at 6 p.m. at the Fire College drill area behind University Mall.

Enrollees at the Fire College will practice skills they hopefully will have to use in fighting propane fires, according to Robert Hagler, director of the Fire College.

This training session will be an actual exercise in dealing with a propane gas fire. The propane industry is relatively new; suppliers and dealers have already had special training in handling the fuel and the safety record has been sufficiently good that few firemen have had occasion to gain experience in combating this type of fire.

The demonstration is being held for the firemen by Ranger Insurance Companies of Houston Texas, the leading insurer of propane dealers in the United States, and is sponsored by the State Fire College.
